

2014 Annual OMA Conference FRIDAY, MAY 16, 2014

The Ohio Mediation Association

Promoting an understanding of the value of mediation.

Dr. Schienvold is a founding partner of Riegler Schienvold & Associates, a group of psychologists and social workers who work together to provide comprehensive, quality care for individuals and families. The firm, established in 1980, is located in Harrisburg, Pennsylvania, and offers a wide range of services including mediation, custody evaluations, group facilitation, organizational consultations, and of course, psychotherapy, and counseling. Dr. Schienvold earned his Master of Arts and Doctor of Philosophy degrees in clinical psychology from the University of Alabama where he specialized in child clinical psychology. He completed his internship at the Ohio State University Hospital.

DIFFICULT Conversations with DIFFICULT People

presented by Arnold Schienvold, Ph.D.

This year's Conference will feature AFCC Past-President Dr. Arnold Schienvold, a nationally-renowned expert on the subject of handling high-conflict disputants in mediation. Dr. Schienvold's talk will focus on a new direction for the field of ADR proposed in Bernard Mayer's book, Staying with Conflict: A Strategic Approach to Ongoing Disputes. Under this approach, the mediator is not merely resolving disputes, but helping people learn to cope with conflict over time and develop strategies that will continue after they leave the negotiation table. The presentation will lay the groundwork for better understanding conflict and how mediators, as a field, can be doing more to help our disputants deal with the problems in their lives.
